Heritage Lodge officially opened

Representatives of federal, provincial and local governments took part in the official opening ceremonies for Elk Point Heritage Lodge last Saturday, June 13, before a capacity crowd.

The program was opened with the National Anthem, led by Pioneer Senior Citizens' Choir. Pastor John McGregor gave the invocation.

Mayor Byron Mann, who has watched the Lodge being built "brick by brick, stick by stick" from his home across the laneway, joked that the residents were "good neighbors - with no loud music or noisy parties". He said the Lodge is "a special building for special people with special needs", and thanked the County and the Town of St. Paul for allowing it to be built in Elk Point. Mann expressed his gratitude to Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation, Alberta Mortgage and Housing Corporation, and the Heritage trust Fund, for the necessary funding, and noted that the Lodge "meets the seniors' needs as they have met our needs in the past".

Ed Hodder, Executive Director of the Northern Region, Alberta Mortgage and Housing Corporation, said that AMHC is "pleased to have played a part and helped to bring the plans to a realization. Hodder said that the lodge program has undergone numerous changes as the needs of seniors have changed. The Elk Point Heritage Lodge incorporates a high standard of space allocation, with only one other seniors' lodge in the province having this amount of space per person.

Hodder challenged each person present to "not separate the seniors from the community" and urged community involvement in the lives of Lodge residents.

Michael Young, Provincial Director of Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation for Alberta, said that he was pleased to see representatives of all three levels of government present at the opening, and commended the governments on their cooperation in bringing the project to its completion.

His Worship Paul Langevin,

Mayor of St. Paul and a board member of the Municipal District of St. Paul Foundation, brought greetings from St. Paul. "I know what a lodge can mean to Seniors, who can then remain in their own community," he commented. He thanked his fellow board members and their secretary-treasurer Marge Lafortune for their many years of hard work and planning for the Lodge.

County Councillor Bill Ference, attending the opening on behalf of Reeve Robert Bouchard, reflected on the progress the Elk Point community has made over the years, and thanked the pioneers "who had the foresight and true grit to settle this area. These are strong people who deserve all the comfort they can get."

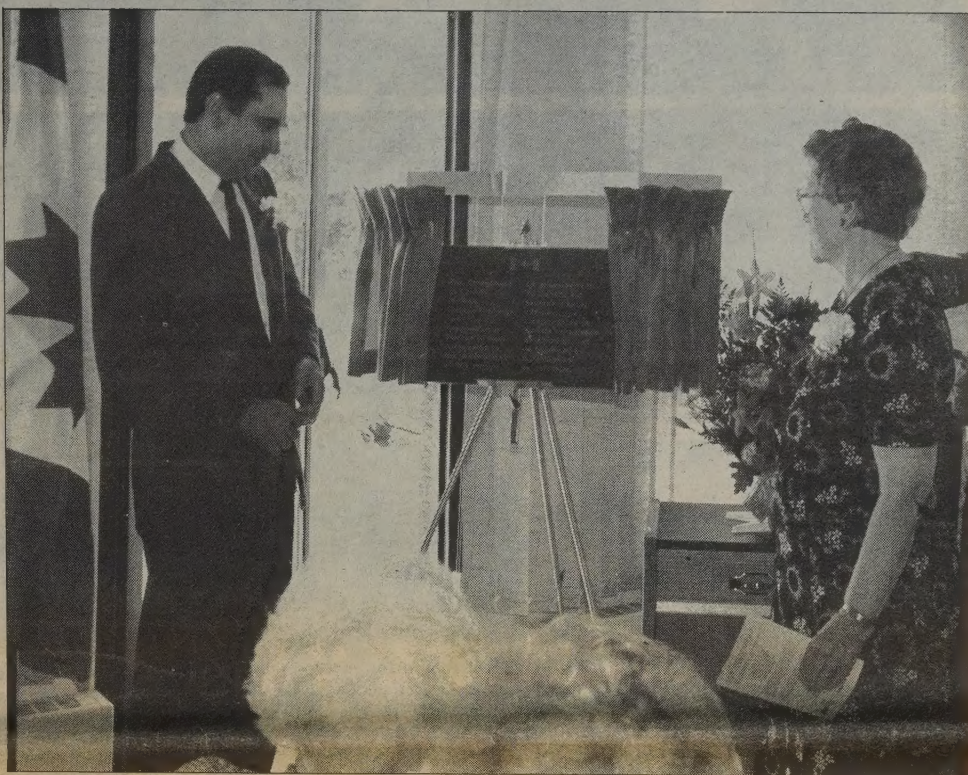

MLA John Drobot felt that Senior Citizens Week was "a very appropriate time" for the opening of the lodge. He praised the vital contributions made by the seniors in developing the province and its communities. "All of the pioneers recognized the abundance and potential of this land ... and worked hard to develop it."

Master of ceremonies Marshall Kachmar read a congratulatory telegram from Hon. Stewart McKinnon, the federal minister responsible for the CMHC, which said in part that the federal government will provide $89,085 subsidy annually toward operating costs of the Lodge.

Deputy Prime Minister Don Mazankowski complimented those who "brought about this truly magnificent facility". Federal, provincial, and municipal levels of government, he said, worked in close cooperation with the people of the community on the project. "You are the only taxpayers", he told them, "the lone funding source for these projects. Therefore, it is incumbent on us all to work together in harmony." In closing, Mazankowski said the Lodge is "a place of comfort to enjoy your retirement years, in peace, happiness and contentment."

Drobot and Mazankowski were

Lioness club plans parade

Everybody loves a parade, and the colorful procession of floats, antique vehicles, decorated bikes, horses and riders which winds its way through Elk Point streets every July 1, is no exception.

The Lioness Club has recently announced plans for this year's parade, and is looking forward to making it the biggest and best ever. Categories are as follows: 1. Clubs and Organizations; 2. Commercial floats; 3. Horses and riders; 4. Pioneer including antique vehicles; 5. 1987 Canada Day

Theme - Citizenship; 6. Individuals; and 7. Decorated bikes.

The parade will form up north of the arena, with judging of the entries to begin at exactly 9:00 a.m. The parade will take to the street at 10:30 a.m., following the awarding of prizes for first, second and third place in each category.

This year's parade route has undergone some changes, due to road construction. From the marshalling area north of the arena, the parade will go south on 51 Street to 51 Avenue, then east one block, south on 50 Street to Railway Avenue, west one block, then north on 51 Street, turning west on 50 Avenue past the Elks Hall parking lot, library, hospital and Heritage Lodge. From there, the parade will turn north on 54 Street for 2 blocks, east on 52 Avenue past Buckingham House to 52 Street and north on 52 Street to the west entrance of the arena grounds. The route is approximately 2.2 km in length.

A special addition to this year's parade will be the Elk Point Light Horse Club's wagon train, which will arrive in town just in time to provide a fitting 80th anniversary finale for the parade.

You are all urged to start planning your entries for the parade right away, because it is community support is what makes the parade possible and successful.

If you have any questions, please phone Susan Frisby at 724-4337.

See you at the parade!

Eighty years of settlement celebrated

The Elk Point community marked the eightieth anniversary of permanent settlement in the area last Thursday, with the presentation of commemorative medallions, pins and scrolls to all residents of the area who are 80 years or older.

A total of 55 seniors were on hand to accept the gifts, while another 30 who were unable to attend the gathering will receive their mementos later.

Master of Ceremonies Pat Vincent welcomed the large crowd in attendance, and introduced the special guests present to help "pay tribute to those instrumental in the development of this community". Rev. Sam Donaldson gave the prayer of invocation.

"Three score and twenty years ago ...", began Mayor Byron Mann, paraphrasing the American Declaration of Independence in his tribute to those who settled the community. "This is an opportunity for all of us to give thanks to those who made our community what it is today," he continued.

Councillor Bob Smith welcomed all present on behalf of the County of St. Paul, and noted that although the community has reached 80 years of age, it is "still young and vigorous".

MLA John Drobot brought greetings on behalf of the Province of Alberta and Premier Don Getty. He paid tribute to the American pioneers who came to this area 80 years ago, and to the other pioneers who came soon after. "Although they are almost all gone now," he continued, "the contributions they made will not be forgotten".

Drobot spoke on the "unbelievable changes" during the past 80 years. "That 'tomorrow' they dreamed about, is what we are living in today." He concluded his portion of the program with a very appropriate original poem.

Larry Ruptash brought greetings on behalf of Deputy Prime Minister Don Mazankowski, "best wishes and congratulations to those who made it possible for us to have things the way we have them today." Ruptash noted that "this country, this province, this community have been built by risk taking, initiative and hard work."

The residents of Elk Point and surrounding area 80 years of age and over were then called forward to be presented with commemorative medallions and pins by Mayor Mann and Councillor Smith, Provincial scrolls by Mr. Drobot and Federal scrolls by Mr. Ruptash.

Imperial Lumber celebrates 80 years service

Imperial Lumber Co. Ltd., an Edmonton based enterprise, proudly celebrates 80 years of serving customers in Western Canada.

Thomas Gilbert Cook, the company founder, began business in a tent in Wainwright in the fall of 1907. His tent was home and office for the first year of business, providing little shelter from the -45 degree winter, or the rain and mud of summer. Through his efforts the lumber business was born by delivering lumber to settlers beyond the rail, using an ox, mule and horse. While engineers were busy surveying the prairies and the railway was being laid west from North Battleford, prospects for the future were bright.

Mr. Cook was joined by his brothers Norman and Harry, to help with the growing demand for lumber and building supplies.

Foresight, plentiful forest resources and ingenuity together with the expanding population were the ingredients for one of Canada's leading lumber and hardware firms.

T.G. Cook moved to Edmonton in 1919 to set up Imperial Lumber's head office after having established four lumber yards south and west of Wainwright under the Imperial name. Growth and development continued and the firm's contribution to the Alberta economy was honored when the provincial government named a new town, Imperial Mills, located 24 miles north of Lac La Biche. The town was built entirely around Imperial Lumber's milling enterprise and was homesteaded by its employees.

By 1937, the demand for finished lumber had increased to the extent where establishing company mills was necessary. Over the next 35 years, some 50 saw mills and 12 planing mills were set up to supply over 30 retail outlets throughout Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Imperial Homes is a modern home manufacturing plant where the company produces roof and floor trusses, stairs and other pre-engineered components of manufactured homes, apartments and commercial buildings. These, as well as complete manufactured homes are sold through their retail outlets and directly to contractors and builders. The advantages of manufactured homes are numerous. While Imperial maintains quality control over the components, assembly at the site is speedy and efficient and costs are kept low with no sacrifice of quality.

The Imperial Building Centres are large, well stocked stores with a wide range of products, plans and ideas for home decorating, maintenance, renovation and construction. Hand and power tools are stocked for convenience for both the do-it-yourself market and the housing contractor. Within each Imperial Building Centre a large lumber yard has been designed for maximum efficiency while carrying a broad assortment of quality lumber products.

Imperial Lumber's close association with the building trade carries over into its retail operations, which are staffed by knowledgeable people who provide full service to the customer. Customers can expect answers for all their building project questions from the long time and experienced staff. Imperial is proud of their reputation of knowledgeable advice, quality materials, full service and cash and carry prices.

In 1971, Mr. Cook died. Since then, Imperial Lumber has been directed by his sons and daughter, supported by knowledgeable people in management and supporting roles throughout the firm.

In the past two decades, the company has consolidated its rural operations and today has a number of retail outlets in larger centres in central and northern Alberta. In Edmonton itself, Imperial Lumber bought W.W. Arcade, a large hardware outlet in 1979 and opened a W.W. Arcade branch store in west Edmonton with plans of opening additional locations in the future.

Quality, service and competitive prices have been the mainstays of Imperial Lumber from the beginning, a spirit that still governs its retail building centres and its Imperial Homes Division.

then joined by Lodge resident Marion Smith, who shared with each in turn in unveiling plaques from the Provincial and Federal governments. Each presented Mrs. Smith with a flag.

Mrs. Smith told her fellow residents, "we have grown old together. Let us give thanks that we have such a nice home to come to. It couldn't be nicer if I'd planned it myself!"

The many guests were then treated to a sumptuous lunch, courtesy of the Heritage Lodge Auxiliary, refreshments supplied by AMHC and the MD of St. Paul Foundation, and tours of the Lodge.

Seniors saluted

The excellent response to both celebrations involving Elk Point's senior citizens last week shows how very important this age group is to our community.

True, Elk Point is more seniors-oriented than many towns. The fact that 85 seniors aged 80 and over were on the list to receive medallions, shows that a large portion of our population is in the senior citizen bracket. That 55 of those were enjoying good health sufficient enough to attend the ceremony shows that this is indeed a town where longevity prevails.

The huge crowd which packed Heritage Lodge for the Official Opening was not all seniors. All generations, from tiny tots on up, were present and enjoying the occasion, together.

At both ceremonies, the many speakers paid tribute to the countless years of toil and hard-ship these seniors, and those who went before them, spent to develop this community from an area of rugged bushland. Less hardy souls would never have attempted to do this, much less made an unqualified success of their efforts.

Men, women, and children came to this country in uncomfortable conveyances, over gruelling distances, and established homes and farms by pushing back the wilderness. They coped with situations and daily labour which would have defeated those of lesser character and sent them back from whence they came.

O, pioneers! They did their share, and much more, to build this country for us to enjoy. Now it is up to us to help them enjoy their sunset years in harmony with the community they helped to bring about.

Honoring our seniors

By Mayor Byron Mann

What is so special about an 80th anniversary? Well, many things come to mind, but perhaps I can plagiarize and slightly modify some words spoken by a famous U.S. President when I say "Three score and 20 years ago our forefathers came upon this land...."

When President Lincoln gave his Gettysburg address it followed the famous battle of the same name.

I do, however, doubt that any original settlers were present at his speech.

Today, fortunately, we are at peace.

We are also fortunate to have with us some of the earliest pioneers in this region and from throughout Western Canada.

Those who are at least 80 years of age are our honored citizens today. It is their physical presence here today that makes this an honored occasion.

It is an opportunity for all of us to give a special thank you to these people for all they have contributed to making our community, our country and our lives what they are today.

All their sacrifices through the past 80 years are too numerous to list; but, they have included carving out homesteads from the sod and timber, breaking land, the horror of two World Wars, and adapting to a rapidly changing world, in between raising a bunch of rebellious children and grandchildren.

From all of us who were not here at the beginning, 80 years ago, these "Honoured Citizen" medallions contain our deepest appreciation and respect for all the effort and sacrifice put forward by those earliest pioneers.

In some ways, it doesn't seem like enough, yet it is all we have to give you.

THE FROST HAS SPOILED OUR HOPES OF SEEING THE TALL BUSH-CRANBERRY BLOOM THIS YEAR — This odd plant has two kinds of flowers in each cluster.

Count our blessings again

By Irene Magnusson

It seems to me, here in the midst of June, that we should pause for a moment and count our blessings. True, there have been a few un-blessings we could do without, such as the nasty frost of May 19-20th, which seems to have eliminated any hope for saskatoons, pincherries, crabapples and raspberries this year. Many other plants and trees, both domesticated and wild, felt the chilling breath and now are blackened, if-not-dead-then-almost, uglies along the roadsides.

But on the bright side, some plants withstood the frost. We now know that honeysuckles are pretty tough, that some mountain ash survived the -10 degrees celcius blasting. And just think of all the money the county can save - the roadside bushes are already blackened and ugly, so they won't have to spray them into that condition - and no poison involved!

I am sorry for all the bedding plants that bit the dust, but perhaps the greenhouses had enough to replace most of them. When will we ever learn that June 10th is the frost-free date?

For those who are hockey fans, rejoice that your beloved Oilers did win (as you knew they would!) and for those who are not hockey fans - a few days of respite before it all begins again.

If your yard is caterpillar free, rejoice that it isn't covered with writhing bodies, dripping down your collar whenever you pass under the trees, as they turn spring back into the look of autumn. My sister-in-law in Victoria writes that out there the caterpillars are attacking the fruit trees, of which they have many, and this is breaking their hearts. Edmonton also bemoans a valley stripped and bare. Perhaps, if we asked what does western Canada have the most of just now, it wouldn't be Separatists at all, but rather caterpillars. And that may be a blessing worth counting.

Motorists of all sorts will this month probably be moaning the 5 cent-per-litre raise in gas prices (not a raise, a tax), but just think, here we were paying about 35 cents, while in Quebec they were into the 54-55 cent range. And a brief fifty years ago, when gas was about 20 cents per gallon, we were driving around in Bennett buggies, democrats and lumber wagons, because we couldn't afford that measly 20 cents. We have all sorts of blessings to count there.

The other thing about fifty years ago, were the lumpy, rutted, dusty, pot-holed and muddy roads we had to travel when we left the yard. You were glad to go slow, otherwise you might have shook all the meat off your bones. Everyone wrapped their babies in blankets then, I think it was to keep their heads from shaking off as they travelled to town for groceries or to visit their neighbors.

Well look at us! Nowadays we have these nice paved roads, (somewhere) and a hope they will suddenly become wide enough so two vehicles can pass without grating together. We have a town where only about half the roads are out of use at any one time, massive trucks churning dust as they haul dirt this-a-way and that-a-way, and we have these high hopes it will all end up, packed, pounded and paved, as streets once again. Count your blessings.

I've even heard rumors there will be work done on the L.R.W.T. (Lousy Road West of Town). I'm sure there will be work done on it. What I'd like to see is work done that improves it, rather than just maintaining it. It's been maintained as a miserable chunk of bumpy dust for far too long. And the 'oil' surfacing done merely made it a less dusty rough road. I guess the blessing to count there is that, over the years all flowers and shrubs have been eliminated, so we have nothing to distract us from seeing the blue sky overhead, if we dare to glance up.

And we do have our blue sky. Most of the time, a fantastically clean, clear beautiful blue sky. If I ever go blind, that will be what I will miss the most, I think, that great bowl of soothing color arching over us, shredded with puffs of white, or strands of grey, sometimes a rainbow, sometimes a flight of birds - even the odd jet streaking by. In summer I seem to lose the moon, which hangs so low, behind my massive trees, still I know it's there, and behind it, the stars. And I count them, too, as blessings.

Other blessings I can count are my good fortune to be healthy, and I grieve for those who are not. I count all those kind, friendly people I meet, and my old friends, and especially my family. What would I do without them!

I walked in the swamp yesterday, to see the sea of marsh-marigolds the frost had not been able to lay waste. I wish you could all come out and see them, they are so good for the soul. There I also saw a few clumps of the blue-violets, long-stemmed, pristine, blooming as beautifully as if all the world would see them - yet here was only me, with perhaps a few squirrels and a pair of bluejays, to admire them. Is there a lesson to be learned there? Perhaps that we should work for the joy of the endeavour - not just for the praise or admiration of others?

Concerned over sports

Dear Sirs:

I am concerned about the state of sports in our communities. I am a school teacher, have coached sports in school and in the community and have two children of my own who like to participate in sports. Always I try to emphasize that while winning is nice, it is more important to participate, have fun, and be sportsmanlike.

What concerns me is what I see happening among adults not among children. Recently nine teams dropped out of a fun fastball tournament put on in Rusylvia. Why? Because they were told by members of the Alberta Softball Association that if they played against unsanctioned teams in a resanctioned tournament they could be suspended from further provincial play for championships. I guess we unsanctioned teams not interested in provincial championships are of lesser status. This meant that approximately 100 children were pulled out of a fun children's tournament by adult coaches because of a threat from an adult association.

Concern over sports

My other concern comes from watching some of the coaching I have seen not only in ball but also in other sports such as soccer and hockey. It seems that the child who is not as skilled as others never get to play. Instead he sits on the sideline watching for most of the game, some way to improve skill and self-esteem. I am not perfect and have on occasion made the same mistake. I do, however, consciously try to make sure everyone has playing time. The best way to learn is by playing. It works, too. Last winter I watched my son play hockey in Derwent. His coach believed in equal playing time for all not because everyone was equal in skills but because everyone was an equal member of the team. Please, if you are a coach make sure everyone gets equal playing time. The important thing is participation, not winning.

I think it's time we looked again at sports and gave it back to the kids as a fun time to learn and build up their self-esteem. Maybe all adults should be banned from children's sports. Maybe it's time we simply gave the kids a ball and bat, or a stick and puck, or a soccer ball and said, "Go ahead, have fun!" You know, they probably could.

Bill Carter

Canada Day preparations near complete for Elk Point

By Marshall Kachmar
Committee Chairman

With all preparations nearly complete, the Canada Day Committee

Chairman wants to thank the co-chairman, Karen Reed, sub-committee chairmen and their volunteer helpers for their hard work and cooperation. From the first meeting in November, 1986, plans have been made for a full day of events and entertainment. This 120th Birthday of Canada, and the 80th Anniversary of settlement in the Elk Point district promises to be the best celebration in northeast Alberta on July 1.

Generous corporate donations were made by Amoco Canada and Pan Canadian Petroleum toward the 80th Anniversary portion of the program. With donations from local service companies - E-Can Oilfield Services, B & R, Lakeland Oilfield Service and Laidlaw - it has been made possible to have fireworks to conclude the day. Local service clubs and organizations who contributed financially and/or volunteered help to the project include the Lions Club, Lioness Club, Elks Lodge, OORP, Pioneer Circle, Legion, Historical Society, County of St. Paul, Elk Point Oilmen's Association and the Oilettes.

Other groups involved are the Elk Point Firefighters' Association, who are hosting the Beer Gardens; Elk Point Minor Baseball, hosting the barbecue supper; the group of merchants (CBM Confectionery, Work Warehouse, OK 3 Bakery, Single Styles, Elk Point Burger Bar and Elk Point Meat Processors) sponsoring the free pancake breakfast; the Chamber of Commerce sponsoring the Youth of the Year awards; and the Town of Elk Point, who are providing us with a fine new stage for the afternoon events. Thanks also to the Elk Point Light Horse Club who are bringing their wagon train to our parade, and to the Elk Point Co-Op for their generous food donation to the wagon train.

The highlights of this year's program include the pancake breakfast; the parade, complete with CFB Cold Lake Brass and Reed Band and the wagon train; official opening with Deputy Prime Minister Don Mazankowski, MLA John Drobot and other dignitaries; a variety of afternoon entertainment including the Veselka Dancers, games and contests for the whole family; the barbecue supper; dance with non-stop music by Wildwood and Mule Train, and fireworks to top it all off.

We have just received confirmation that the Elk Point Scouting Association will take part by planting a maple tree, which we can enjoy for many, many Canada Days to come.

Westward ho! Back to the good old days

By Myrna Golden

What better way to celebrate the 80th anniversary of our forefathers coming out west to settle in the Elk Point area, than by having a wagon train?

It's full steam ahead for the wagon train being put on by the Elk Point and District Light Horse Association. Our three day trip starts at Elk Point and travels to Lindbergh where we circle the wagons (in case of attack) and set up our first night camp. The next day we have a scenic ride up to the Spring Park area where we stop overnight to rest our weary bones and sore....! Then it's back to Elk Point and our Grand Finale which is the July First Parade.

We are all excited about the trip as we daydream about sitting around the campfire, coffee mug in hand, singing those old time favourite country tunes.

Maps will be posted as to where our overnight camps are, so come out and have a look and I'm sure we could rustle you up a cup of coffee. You might even hear a tall tale or two!

What better way to spend a holiday than with good friends, family, fresh air and a little adventure, what more could you ask for?

Elk Point Bravettes

The Elk Point Bravettes Girls Softball team have had a good season - completing league play and winning 8 games out of 10 to earn themselves a first place standing in the League. The Lakeland Super League consisted of 6 teams, Kitscoty, Vermilion, Marwayne, Dewberry, Clondonald and Elk Point.

Many thanks go out to the sponsors that helped our team out, the people who supported our girls in the Lap-athon, the parents who were most supportive, the students who supported us by attending our dances, to our umpires and to anyone else I have missed.

The girls will be playing in Dewberry Wednesday, June 17, at 6:30, where the League teams will be involved in a mini-tournament. There is also the possibility that they will be attending a tournament in Marwayne on June 20, 1987.

Crop report - growth

June 12/87

There has been some crop deterioration during the past week.

The estimate current soil moisture conditions are fair for summerfallow and stubble. The estimate plant growth prospects under current moisture conditions are poor.

The estimate condition of the crop in relation to a 100% condition (100% represents optimal growth conditions where a bumper crop could result) is: Hard Red Spring Wheat - 90%, Winter Wheat - 90%, Oats - 85%, Barley - 85%, Fall Rye - 90% and Canola - 85%.

The estimate potential average yield per acre in kilograms based on present crop conditions is: Hard Red Spring Wheat - 817 kg, Winter Wheat - 817 kg, Oats - 1234 kg, Barley - 1306 kg, Fall Rye - 762 kg, Canola - 227 kg.

The estimate percentage of each crop which is currently in or has completed each stage is: Hard Red Spring Wheat - 100% emerging, Barley - 100% emerging, Canola - 100% emerging.

The estimate date that swathing will start is September 1/87.

All crops are up and off to an extremely good start, but the area is rapidly becoming very dry. Herbicide application is at 75% completed, with some producers holding off due to dry conditions. Hay crops are losing ground due to the dry conditions. A general rain is needed very badly.

Termites win Grand Centre tournament

By Pat Vincent

The Elk Point Truss Termites served notice on Saturday, June 13 that they will be the team to reckon with when it comes to the Lakeland Minor Baseball League Mite division championship tournament June 27 and 28 in Bonnyville.

Competing against Mite teams from around the league including Cold Lake, Pierceland and CFB Medley, Elk Point faced a tournament schedule in the 2nd Annual Grand Centre Invitation Mite Division tournament which could have been the undoing of many a lesser team. However, the Termites have proven themselves a team which rises to the occasion rather than a team which wilts under pressure.

The Termites, players, coaches, parents and supporters were off early departing Elk Point at 7:30 a.m. in order to play their tournament opening game at 9:00 a.m. on the Elementary School grounds in Grand Centre.

The starting time of that opening game was pushed back by 30 minutes as last minute tournament schedule adjustments were made and the pre-tournament coaches meeting was held.

Each tournament has its own set of rules and this tournament was no different. The Termites playing in their first tournament were forced to deal with some tournament rules which were slightly different than the normal baseball rules the team has been playing under. For example, coaches did the pitching instead of the teams regular players.

Faced with this unusual situation the Termites opened the tournament against the Grand Centre RCMP Mites team.

The Termites were first to bat in game one, as they would in all three games they played in the tournament. The Termites started strong, which was an omen of how the team would play in the duration of the tournament, by scoring 8 runs in the first inning. Grand Centre battled back with 4 runs in the bottom of the 1st and two more scores in the bottom of the 2nd inning to narrow the Termite advantage at 8 - 6. Four runs in the third and three more in the fourth inning by the Termites proved to be an insurmountable lead as Grand Centre could only muster 3 runs in the bottom of the final inning falling victim to the Termite scourge 15 - 9.

With only seven teams in the tournament and therefore an unbalanced schedule the Termites came up on the short end of the tournament draw. As a result the team was back on the field immediately to play Grand Centre Gerber Realty.

The Termites continued their red hot play scoring 7 runs in the first inning, adding a single run in the 2nd, 4 runs in the third and 2 runs in the fourth inning. Gerber Realty managed single runs in the first and third innings and 3 runs in the bottom of the fourth inning in suffering a 14 - 5 defeat at the hands of the Termites.

With their second victory the Termites advanced to the tournament final facing CFB Medley who advanced to the final with victories over Bonnyville B & R Transport and Cold Lake.

The experience of being in the tournament championship game was more than the players had bargained for and it showed in the first inning as the Termites were overanxious at the plate and appeared to be rattled in the field. Trailing Medley 3 - 1 after one inning the Termites found their stride with 6 runs in the 2nd and 5 runs in the third to take a 12 - 4 lead after three innings.

From there on out the Termites remained in control of the 6 inning championship final cruising to a 19 - 11 victory.

At the conclusion of the game tournament organizers were on hand to present the victors with individual trophies which were hard earned and well deserved.

The tournament championship was a culmination of a total team effort with all the team members contributing in some way or other to the team's success. The Termite players who participated in the tournament were: Matthew Vincent, Kelly Peterson, Sheldon Ballas, Rene Ringuette, Raegan Croteau, Justin Conrad, Chris McKay, Lorne Kozicky, Joey Youngchief, Ryan Stone, Mark Woytkiw, Dennis Huddy, Jamie Franson and Curtis Poulin.

The Termites' success stemmed in large part from their ability at the plate. That was due in no small way to pitching coach Craig Stone being able to dish up several "go for" balls. With heavy hitters such as Justin Conrad who had 5 home runs in the day and Sheldon Ballas with four the Termites offensive output overwhelmed the opposition with Medley the only team able to reach double figures in run output, and then only after the final outcome was no longer in jeopardy.

Other contributing factors to the team's success was excellent base coaching at third by Gary Youngchief and a large contingent of staunch and vocal supporters who were rewarded with the team meeting supporters' expectations - tournament champions. And certainly another factor was team pride which was evident when the players sported new ball caps furnished by the team sponsor Ed Croteau of Elk Point Truss.

The Termites will put their unblemished 5 - 0 record on the line in their march to a possible league championship when the team travels to Bonnyville for a return match with the Green Machine on June 18.

Prior to that game the team will enjoy a different kind of practice Tuesday when they host the T-Ball team in an exhibition game.

The parent support enjoyed by the team on the weekend was greatly appreciated and the smiles on the faces of both the players and their parents were very satisfying for the team management.

Out Our Way

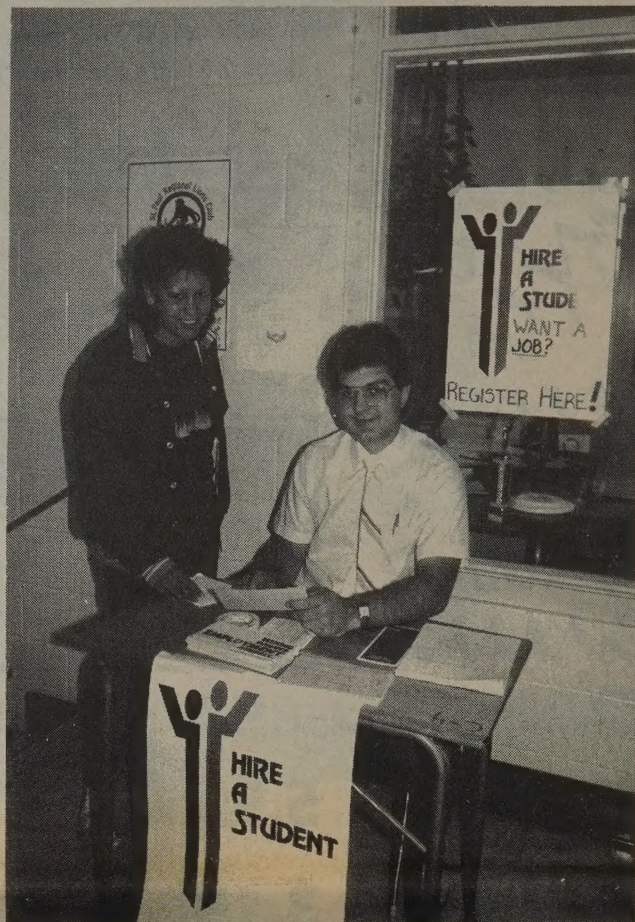

By Mildred Dunham

Ferguson Flats will once again have their annual picnic June 28th. It's an old fashioned picnic, no charge at the gate and goodies at the booth at old fashioned prices.

If you can run, pound nails, or throw a roller at your spouse, come join the fun or sit in your chair and watch the ball games.

Shirley Ockerman once again became grandma; twice this spring - as daughter Christine & Dennis Utley had a daughter, and son Gary & Kathy Ockerman had a son.

Primrose is once again having its share of fishermen and campers heading for Garnier Lake; one of the few camping spots left with no gate fee.

HIRE-A-STUDENT THIS SUMMER — Placement officer Scott Prysunka took his Elk Point Hire-A-Student registration desk to F.G. Miller High School last Thursday. Here, Heather Poltras discusses summer job prospects with Prysunka. Over 60 full-time jobs and 40 part-time positions have been filled to date by the St. Paul and Elk Point Hire-A-Student offices. Prysunka urges all those with odd jobs to call into his office, as he has many young people ready to mow lawns, paint, clean up yards and basements, and do other temporary jobs.

Fast, Temporary Relief...

Ease Your Summer Work Load. Hire A Student.

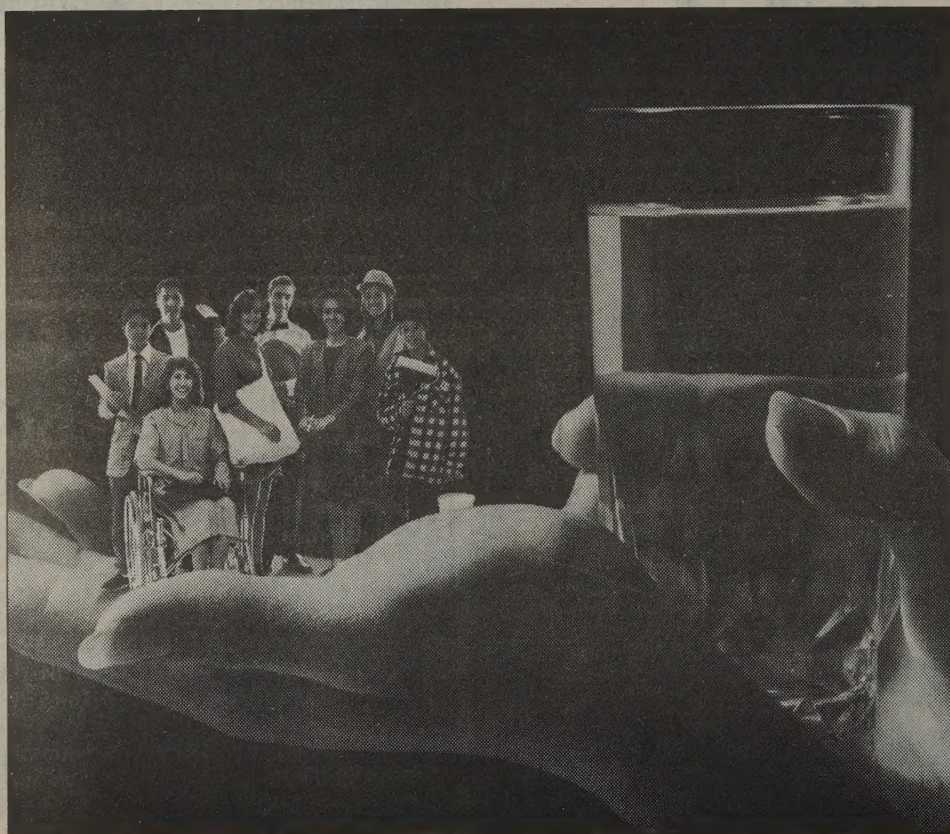

Here's a remedy for those busy summer days. Put the energy and enthusiasm of students to work for you.

Students are willing to do just about any sort of work from part-time duties around the house, to career-oriented jobs.

Every summer, students provide a wealth of talent, knowledge and ingenuity that every employer can tap.

So, for fast, temporary relief from nagging summer jobs - put them in the hands of a student!

Clandonald 4-H Beef Club achievement day

By Shirley Osinchuk

At 1 p.m. on June 7, the Clandonald 4-H Beef Club welcomed guests to the annual Achievement Day, in the Clandonald Arena. Singing O Canada and the 4-H Pledge opened the programme.

Brenda Polowy, club treasurer, welcomed everyone, and club leader, Larry Garnier introduced the judges, Bill Wilson, from Camrose, for conformation, Howard Jackson, from Mannville for Showmanship, and John Baehl, the Ringman.

Four steers were lead out for the club members to judge, after Bill Wilson gave some pointers on judging.

The nine Junior members showed their steers, keeping a watchful eye on the two judges. After the steers were placed in the order chosen by Bill Wilson, he explained the reasons for his placing, based on market demands, like the amount of "finish" and potential amount of prime cuts of beef.

Dana Misick's calf, "Prince" was Junior Champion, and Brent Martin's was second.

60 years ago you made light of it

Today, it's a vital part of living.

When we began providing Albertans with a dependable supply of electric power back in May of 1927, electricity was far from the indispensable, full-time servant it is today.

Elk Point and district was added to our list of communities served in 1948. Back then, electricity shed some light into a few homes during the evening hours and was available Monday mornings for the weekly wash. But that was it.

Today, electricity has become so versatile and serves us in so many ways that life would be almost impossible without it.

The number of uses for our product has grown dramatically over 60 years, but our original commitment remains unaltered: to supply our customers with the highest possible standard of electrical service - at the lowest possible cost. Elk Point and Alberta Power - we've been together for 39 years.

Tourism In Alberta PICTURE THE PROMISE

Picture an industry full of opportunity and promise for all Albertans. A strong industry today that will grow even stronger tomorrow.

For ourselves and our children, tourism offers real benefits here and now. It puts $2.3 billion into our economy each year and supports 100,000 jobs involving 5,400 Alberta companies.

During the next decade, tourism's growth will more than double. Which means this industry will attract more tourist dollars, provide more jobs, and create more travel and recreation opportunities for everyone.

So put yourself in the picture. Whether you take an Alberta Break—or take time to extend a warm welcome to visitors from afar—you're helping tourism lay a foundation for a very bright future.

GUEST SPEAKER — Eric Jones of Alberta Farm Safety shows 4-H'ers and parents the newest St. John's Ambulance first aid kit, suitable for use in farm emergencies.

4-H MultiClub banquet

The Elk Point 4-H Multi Club hosted a year-end windup banquet for their families on Sunday, with a fine meal prepared by the Foods Project members and a most interesting guest speaker.

Eric Jones of Alberta Agriculture's Farm Safety Branch proved to be both entertaining and informative, as he explained a number of simple ways to stay safe on the farm.

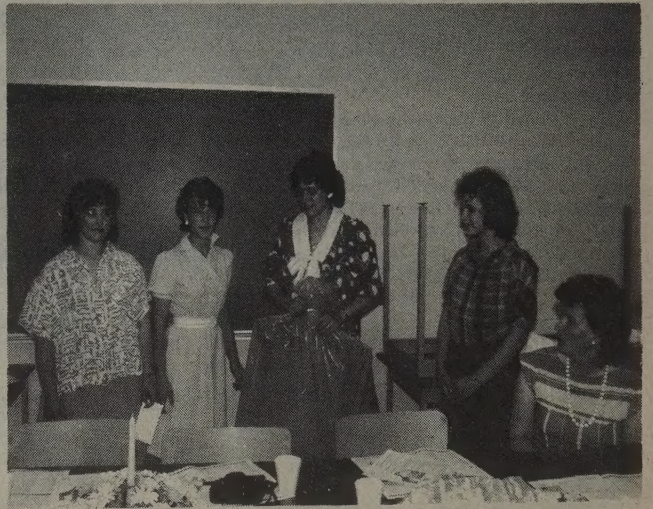

Jones handed out samples of safety equipment, including disposable coveralls to wear while applying pesticides, masks to wear while welding, and earplugs to prevent hearing damage from machinery noise. He also displayed the latest in first aid equipment, and showed the group the life-size doll used in child C.P.R. classes.

Jones highly recommended that all 4-Hers and parents should take first aid classes rather than learning it first hand during an emergency situation, as he had during his life as a forest ranger, when among other things he learned to deliver his and his wife's first child.

He cautioned against sunburn, careless use of motorcycles and ATVs, and pleaded for water safety, on the farm as well as on the beach.

Another cause of farm accidents, Jones said, is lack of communication among farm family members. Good communication alleviates stress, especially between spouses, he said.

The evening ended with the presentation of a thank you gift from the Foods Project members to leader Cheri Lindquist, in appreciation of her year's work with them.

FOOD PROJECT MEMBERS — Faye Drobot, Jodi Vogel and Elena Drobot presented Food Project Leader Cheri Lindquist with a year end gift, as Multi-Club leader Ruth Vogel looks on.
